Re: Moog Inc. v. Skyrise, Inc. et al., Case No. 1:22-cv-00187-LJV-JJM

Dear Judge McCarthy:

We write on behalf of Defendant Skyrise, Inc. to address Plaintiff Moog Inc.'s unauthorized submission this morning of a reply brief in support of its pending motion to compel disclosures. Last week, Moog filed a motion requesting numerous forms of relief on many issues, and (1) asked that its motion be heard on shortened time at today's conference with the Court, (2) asked that Skyrise be ordered to respond in just three business days, and (3) told the Court in no uncertain terms that "Moog is prepared to waive a reply brief to accommodate the proposed [hearing] on June 16, 2022." (Motion, ECF 142 at 2.) After Moog made this representation, the Court ordered the briefing and hearing to be held on Moog's requested expedited schedule. (Text Order, ECF 145.)

This morning, contrary to its express waiver and without seeking leave of Court, Moog submitted via email a reply brief in the form of a letter to Your Honor, raising at least ten issues and conceding it was doing so after having "reviewed" Skyrise's opposition briefing. This, after Moog waived its right to any such reply brief, represented it would not file one, and the Court did not authorize it to file one. (Text Order, ECF 145.) Moog should be held to its word and not permitted to disregard its representations to the Court. Respectfully, Skyrise asks the Court to strike Moog's unauthorized reply submission in its entirety.

Very truly yours,
